

It's Summertime! Time for camps, clinics and outdoor volleyball. Check out the activities we love most; and please avoid scheduling camps during Club Tryouts starting July 11 through July 18:

The Rocky Mountain Region of USA Volleyball will post a comprehensive selection of camps, clinics and beach programs for the Spring and Summer months and it's all on one chart for your convenience. Visit their website at www.rmrvolleyball.org. You'll likely find it under the heading of Girls or Parents. Check back as new camps are added regularly.

Flatirons Volleyball Club is offering two weeks of camps and clinics this summer starting June 6-9 for Skills Camps and June 13-16 for Position Clinics. Registration will open in May. To be added to our email list, send your campers name and age to flatironsvbc@gmail.com.

Check out the following College Camps:

Regis University at www.regisvolleyballcamps.com

U of Colorado Boulder at <https://cubuffs.com/sports/2010/3/7/volleyball-summer-camps.aspx>

Colorado State University at <https://www.csuramvolleyballcamps.com/>

U of Northern Colorado at <http://www.uncbearsvolleyball.com/camps.html>

Air Force Academy: <https://goairforcefalcons.com/sports/2018/6/21/camps-volleyball-html.aspx?id=4677>

Metro State: <https://www.roadrunnersvolleyballcamps.com/>

U of Denver: <https://www.duvolleyballcamps.com/>

High School Open Gyms:

If you're a high school player (including incoming Freshmen), check with your high school coach about the open gym schedule at your school. Do this right away; if you wait till school is out, you may have trouble reaching them.

Professional Camps and Clinics:

Nike Volleyball Camp: <https://www.ussportscamps.com/volleyball/#colorado>

Pat Power (Olympian) Skills Clinics: <https://vbclinics.com/> July 16-17

Outdoor/Beach Programs

Flatirons' Outdoor Program is tentatively scheduled to start in June. Email your request to receive details to flatironsvbc@gmail.com.

Colorado Volleyball (not to be confused with U. of Colorado) hosts doubles tournaments for Junior players; the schedule is posted at <http://www.coloradojuniorsbeachvolleyballtournaments.com/index.php>. Doubles are a great way to improve skills and have lots of fun at the same time! Get a partner and bring your visor, sunglasses and sunscreen.

The Rocky Mountain Region www.rmrvolleyball.org is also hosting Junior doubles tournaments which start on May 14. Look for "Beach" at the top of the home page. You'll also find a listing of additional summer tournaments.

Norco Volleyball Club continually offers camps run by excellent coaches:
<https://www.norcovolleyball.com/camps>

Coming up on Fathers Day weekend in June is the annual Vail King of the Mountain Juniors Tournament. This tournament is loads of fun in a gorgeous setting. To register, visit Home - Vail Doubles Volleyball. Registration is open now.

The Gold Crown Volleyball Camps are for elementary, middle school and high school players. More information is posted at <https://www.goldcrownfoundation.com/?s=volleyball+camps>

Alexander Dawson School in Lafayette runs two weeks of volleyball camps in June and July. More information: <https://www.dawsonschool.org/summer/summer-camps>

For drop in outdoor volleyball, not to mention a tremendous sight to see, visit Washington Park (Virginia Ave. and Downing St. in Denver) on Wednesdays at 6:00 pm. Cost: $4 to play; primarily older kids and adults.

And don't forget Sports Oasis in Broomfield . . . they have two outdoor courts and offer doubles, drop in and league play. Details: www.sportsoasis.com

AVP has announced their summer schedule for professional beach volleyball. Watch for TV listings as the live matches are usually televised on NBC on Sundays. www.avp.com Also on Amazon Prime. The AVP Tour comes to Denver on July 2 & 3.

 Gold Crown Volleyball League for 5th-8th graders begins mid August Flatirons is happy to be hosting the Monarch teams. Email MonarchGCVB@gmail.com to request notification via email.

As you can see, there's plenty of volleyball for all levels ~ have a great time!

 Flatirons VBC tryouts begin the week of July 11! Tryout at the earliest session to increase your chances. RMR USA Volleyball membership is required.